Unguja, also known as Zanzibar Island, is the main island in the Tanzanian archipelago of Zanzibar. Stone Town, part of Zanzibar City, is an old trade center, with mosques and winding lanes. The 1883 House of Wonders is a former sultan's palace with a clock tower. The Old Fort now houses a cultural center and a stone amphitheater. Underground aqueducts fed hot water to the late-19th-century Hamamni Persian Baths.

Keep your camera in your hands so you do not let anything slip between your fingers. And do not forget to live the moments in real life too.

Day 3: ZANZIBAR

After breakfast in the morning at 09:00, you will be guided to Stone Town. With your guide you will walk leisurely on narrow bazar streets. Discovery of the wonderful magnificent of Zanzibar Stone Town, you will visit of the historical sites, Zanzibar curved doors, old slave market, house of wonder, old fort, fruit market, etc.

Stone Town of Zanzibar, also known as Mji Mkongwe (Swahili for "Old Town"), is the old part of Zanzibar City, the main city of Zanzibar, in Tanzania. The newer portion of the city is known as Ng'ambo, Swahili for 'the other side'. Stone Town is located on the western coast of Unguja, the main island of the Zanzibar Archipelago. Former capital of the Zanzibar Sultanate, and flourishing center of the spice trade as well as the slave trade in the 19th century, it retained its importance as the main city of Zanzibar during the period of the British protectorate.

When Tanganyika and Zanzibar joined each other to form the United Republic of Tanzania, Zanzibar kept a semi-autonomous status, with Stone Town as its local government seat.

Stone Town is a city of prominent historical and artistic importance in East Africa. Its architecture, mostly dating back to the 19th century, reflects the diverse influences underlying the Swahili culture, giving a unique mixture of Arab, Persian, Indian and European elements. For this reason, the town was designated as a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2000.

Due to its heritage, Stone Town is also a major visitor attraction in Tanzania, and a large part of its economy depends on tourism-related activities.

Activities: City tour
Meals: Bed and Breakfast

Day 4: ZANZIBAR

Today will be Prison Island Tour, you will depart from your hotel for Prison Island, exploring of the tortoises, swimming, and snorkeling.

Prison Island, also known as Changuu Island or Quarantine Island, is located in Zanzibar Archipelago at 5 km North West from Stone Town, Zanzibar. In 1893 the former British Prime Minister of Zanzibar purchased the island and built a prison complex on it. The building was never used as a prison; instead it was a quarantine station for yellow fever cases. Nowadays, the bulding is used as a guesthouse for tourists.

During your guided tour, we will sail from Zanzibar and after 30-45 minutes we will dock at the Shore of Prison Island. There, in the coral reef in shallow waters, you can observe beautiful star fishes, and collect magnificent shells as souvenirs.

Giant Tortoise Reservation

The giant tortoises from Prison Island are not local species; four specimens of Aldabra giant tortoises were received as a gift from the governor of Seychelles Islands in 1919. They found on Prison Island nice conditions to breed, so by 1955 the total number of giant tortoises from Prison Island Zanzibar increased to 200.

As part of your guided tour on Prison Island, we will visit the reservation and you'll be able to observe, interact and feed the tortoises. Very calm and friendly reptiles, they can be fed by hand. Children will especially enjoy this memorable experience! You can also make small donations to the reservation to protect the giant tortoises of Prison Island Zanzibar.

Old Prison Building

After visiting the giant tortoise reservation, I will guide your steps to the Old Prison building of Prison Island. Even if it's called like that, it was never used as a prison; instead it was used as a quarantine station for yellow fever cases.

Here we can make a short break, enjoy some beverages and the beautiful view over the sea before continuing our tour. You can admire the colorful peacocks or spot baby antelopes. After that, you can refresh in the crystal clear waters of the Shore of Prison Island, do some snorkeling and be amazed by the colorful sea life near the reef.

Prison Island is a very beautiful place to visit. As your guide during this tour, I will take care of all the logistics and reservations so you can fully enjoy your holiday.
